The queries related to the Journal Expert

1- Has the first author and the corresponding author entered his/her ORCID code?
   Yes ☐   No ☐

2- Has the corresponding author inserted the academic e-mail address in the article?
   Yes ☐   No ☐

3- Is the format of the references correct in the text and the end of the manuscript?
   Yes ☐   No ☐

4- Has the reference management software been applied?
   Yes ☐   No ☐

5- Have the name of the authors (in Persian abstract) been also deleted in the anonymous file?
   Yes ☐   No ☐

6- Are the attachments complete and perfect?
   Yes ☐   No ☐

7- Is the information completely uploaded to the site?
   Yes ☐   No ☐

8- The status announced by the journal expert:
   It is problematic ☐   Not problematic ☐

The queries related to the Statistician

1- Has the type of the article (Review article, Research article, Short communication, , Case report) been correctly chosen?
   Yes ☐   No ☐

2- Is the applied statistical method appropriate?
   Yes ☐   No ☐

3- Has the statistical analysis been properly performed?
   Yes ☐   No ☐

4- Is the data in the article correct (no data making)?
   Yes ☐   No ☐

5- Are the figures and the tables appropriate? Do they properly show the data? Are they easy to interpret and understand?
   Yes ☐   No ☐

6- Is this article suitable for submission to the referee?
   Yes ☐   No ☐

7- The status announced by the statistician expert.
   Rejection ☐   Return to author for revision ☐   Send to the next stage

The queries related to the Section Editors

1- Is the article in the scope of the journal?
   Yes ☐   No ☐
2- Is the article adequately updated and attractive enough to be published in this journal?
   Yes ☐   No ☐
3- Are the references updated and appropriate?
   Yes ☐   No ☐
4- Is the English language quality of the article appropriate?
   Yes ☐   No ☐
5- Is the article qualitatively appropriate?
   Yes ☐   No ☐
6- The article score from 100 (articles with a score less than 70 are rejected)

7- Is this article suitable for submission to the referee?
   Yes ☐   No ☐   Return to author for revision ☐
8- Suggested reviewers

Comments of the Editor in Chief

1- The chief editor's opinion about the article:
   Acceptance for sending to the reviewers ☐
   Return to the author for primarily revision ☐
   Fast rejection ☐
2- Write an explanation about the article if necessary.

3- Please declare the names of the intended reviewers.